

SEMA Survey

The Specialty Equipment Market Association conducted a survey April 1-7, 2020, of more than 2,000 people employed in the specialty-equipment industry.

87% of businesses believe that the coronavirus will only have a short-term impact on their company.

Two-thirds of industry businesses have not closed any of their sites during this time.

82% of employees are still on the job at their worksite or from home.
